Order Directing Clerk to Re-Scan Petition

Calvin Johnson, et al.,

[ECF No. 1-1]

Respondents

Petitioner Corry Alexis Hawkins petitions under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 for relief from his state-court convictions for conspiracy to commit murder, burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon, and possession of a firearm by an ex-felon.<sup>1</sup> But this case is not Hawkins's first attempt to challenge these convictions. On September 1, 2020, the court received a § 2254 petition from Hawkins and the clerk then opened Hawkins v. Johnson, Case No. 2:20-cv-01620-APG-DJA (Hawkins I). Hawkins attached additional sheets to the court's petition form, and he wrote on both sides of those sheets. The clerk scanned the petition, but the clerk did not scan both sides of the additional sheets. The court dismissed Hawkins I because Hawkins did not file a complete application to proceed in forma pauperis. Hawkins then sent a petition and a complete application to proceed in forma pauperis to the court, and the clerk opened this second action (Hawkins II). Hawkins has since paid the filing fee.<sup>2</sup> However, the petition that Hawkins sent in Hawkins II is a photocopy of the scanned petition in Hawkins I that is missing pages. The
